Chronology	Nursery	Reception	Year 1	Year 2
Skills	I can talk in simple terms about myself, my family and key events in my life such as birthdays or family celebrations.	Beginning to sequence events when describing them (e.g. daily routines, events in a story) Recognising that some stories are set a long time ago. Recognising significant dates for them (birthday). Beginning to use common words and phrases for the passage of time, even if using inaccurately (e.g. yesterday, today, tomorrow, last week, "when I was in nursery...") Recounting activities that happened in their past using photos as a prompt.	Sequencing three or four events in their own life (e.g. birthday, starting school, starting Year 1). Using common words and phrases for the passing of time (e.g. now, long ago, then, before, after). Sequencing three or four artefacts/photographs from different periods of time. Placing events on a simple timeline. Recording on a timeline a sequence of historical stories heard orally.	Sequencing six artefacts on a timeline. Sequencing up to six photographs, focusing on the intervals between events. Placing events on a timeline, building on times studied in Year 1. Beginning to recognise how long each event lasted. Knowing where people/events studied fit into a chronological framework.
Knowledge	I know the names of the people in my immediate family (mummy, daddy etc.) and the adults in Nursery. I know that some things happened a long time ago in real life.	To know that someone's age is the time since they were born. To know that they started life as a baby but have since grown and changed. To know that some people are older than others. To know that parents are older than children and grandparents are older than parents. To know some language for talking about the passing of time and events that have already happened, even if used inaccurately. (before, yesterday, last week, last year).	To know that a timeline shows the order events in the past happened. To know that we start by looking at 'now' on a timeline then look back. To know that 'the past' is events that have already happened. To know that 'the present' is time happening now. To know that within living memory is 100 years.	To know a decade is ten years. To know that beyond living memory is more than 100 years ago. To know that events in history may last different amounts of time.
